

LSCB Safeguarding Learning Event

- Learning from Reviews
- Thresholds
- ‘Going to Extremes’ – AlterEgo Creative Solutions

27th October 2016: Leicestershire Police Headquarters, Enderby.

LSCB Safeguarding Learning Event

Agenda:

27th October 2016, Leicestershire Police Head Quarters.

Morning Session 9.30am – 12.30pm

Afternoon Session 2pm – 5pm

Time		Session information
Morning 8.45 am	Afternoon 1.30pm	Registration & refreshments Please be seated to allow a prompt start to event – thank you.
Morning: 9.30 am	Afternoon 2.00pm	Event open: Welcome: Paul Burnett – Leicestershire & Rutland & Leicester City (LSCB Independent Chairs)
Session 1		Learning From Reviews. Adrian Spanswick & Helen Pearson
Session 2		Thresholds. Jackie Difolco.
		Networking break Please be seated promptly after refreshments
Session 3		Going to Extremes Alter Ego theatre presentation
Morning: 12.20 – 12.30pm	Afternoon 4.50 – 5pm	Plenary & Event Close: Please return completed evaluation forms & collect certificates on exit.

Visit the LSCB page for event materials: <http://lrsb.org.uk/lscb-safeguarding-learning-event>

Presenter Profiles:

Paul Burnett – Independent Chair, Leicestershire and Rutland Safeguarding Adults Board and Safeguarding Children Board

Paul Burnett is Director of Paul Burnett Associates Ltd, a company providing interim management, consultancy and project management services to local government and other organisations in the field of Children's Services.

He is currently Independent Chair of the Safeguarding Children Board in Leicestershire and Rutland and chairs the Safeguarding Adults Boards in Leicestershire and Rutland. He also works as an Inclusion Quality Mark Assessor in schools.

Paul Burnett was Corporate Director for Children and Young People in Northamptonshire County Council from 2007 until 2011.

He began his career as a secondary school teacher in Northamptonshire, holding a variety of roles including pastoral, staff development and special educational needs support posts. His local government career began with East Sussex County Council, where he held a variety of posts covering in-service training, special educational needs, resources, strategic planning and support services as well as spending a period in the Executive Office. From 1997, he was Assistant Director in the new unitary authority in Brighton and Hove. Initially responsible for Parent and Pupil Services, he took a lead role in the strategic planning for Children's Services and the creation of the Children, Families and Schools directorate that drew together education and Children's Social Services. Between 2003 and 2007 he worked in the London Borough of Greenwich, first as Director of Education and subsequently as Director of Children's Services.

Learning lessons from Reviews:

Adrian Spanswick. Consultant/Designated Nurse Safeguarding (Children and Adult Safeguarding)

Adrian qualified as a Register General Nurse in 1987 and as a Registered Health Visitor in 1992 and completed both his nursing and health visitor training in Leicester.

As a health visitor he worked in Rugby (East Warwickshire) and Leicester City. While working as a health visitor in Leicester City he completed Masters in Child Care Law and Practice at Keele University. In 1999 he was appointed as Child Protection Nurse Specialist (Named Nurse) for Leicester, Leicestershire and Rutland health provider (services included community health, community hospitals, minor injury units, adult and children's mental health services and learning disabilities. Appointed Designated Nurse Child Protection (2003: Leicester, Leicestershire and Rutland) and Nurse Consultant Safeguarding Children (2004 – retaining Designated responsibilities).

Adrian manages the Hosted CCG Safeguarding team. He has Designated Nurse responsibilities for Leicester City and is a member of both Children and Adult Boards. He is Chair of the Children Serious Case Review Sub-Group. As part of role in the CCG he is the Designated Adult Safeguarding Manager (DASM) – includes lead for the MCA.

Helen Pearson: Safeguarding Boards Officer. Leicestershire & Rutland Safeguarding Board

Helen Pearson is a qualified Social Worker with over 35 years' experience in both the Child and Adult Sector as a front line practitioner/manager and Learning and Development Officer. Helen's current role is as a Board Officer supporting the work of the Leicestershire and Rutland Safeguarding Boards including the dissemination of learning from reviews.

Thresholds:Jackie Difulco. Head of Service, Early Years, Leicester City.

Jackie is the Head of Service: for Targeted Early Help for Leicester City Council and qualified with a BA Hons in Youth and Community Development in 2001. She has worked across three local authority areas, Northamptonshire, Rutland and now Leicester in various roles within children's services with a portfolio covering youth work, community safety, housing, children centres, disabled children's services, NEET, youth participation and family support.

Jackie's professional background has always been within early help and prevention services both within the statutory and voluntary sector where she was the Chair of 'Corby Women's Centre' supporting women impacted by domestic violence from 1998 – 2008 and as a Director of a young people's community interest company 'Youth Works CIC' supporting young people to engage in education, employment and training opportunities across Corby and Kettering from 2008 – 2014.

Going to Extremes:AlterEgo Creative Solutions:

One of the UK's leading Applied Theatre companies – that uses theatre and related media to illustrate the narrative around complex social issues. AlterEgo work with schools, colleges, universities, police forces, social services, LSCBs, charities, borough councils, county councils, private businesses, national government agencies and NGOs to deliver productions, workshops and training for young people and adults both in the UK and abroad.

The company produced and performed the internationally renowned Chelsea's choice performance which has been shown widely across Education settings in Leicester, Leicestershire and Rutland.